County Reappraisal To Start Jan. 19

MOUNTS NAMES DAYTON FIRM FOR WORK HERE

4,000 Parcels To Be Revalued in Program Set for Finish by October.

Work on the first general county-wide reappraisal of Marion county real estate to be made in 1948 will begin Jan. 19, County Auditor Harry V. Mounts announced today.

The reappraisal will be made by Cole-Layer-Trumble Co. of Dayton, a professional appraisal engineering firm, selected by the county auditor from among several submitting proposals.

Details were set up in a conference between Mr. Mounts and company officials Monday afternoon in the county auditor's office when the contract for the reappraisal was signed.

According to the contract, a conscientious effort will be made by the Cole-Layer-Trumble company to complete the task by October. The county auditor expressed the hope that the new valuations would be available for use in making up the December apportionment for 1948 taxes.

24,000 Parcels

The appraisal will cover each of the 24,000 parcels of land in Marion county, a total of approximately 1,000,000 acres, exclusive of public lands, Mr. Mounts said.

For making the reappraisal, the appraisal firm will receive $50,000, out of the survey will be a fraction over $2 per parcel including the public utilities, the county auditor pointed out.

For the 1931 reappraisal, the county auditor said, the county spent $30,000, he added.

For determining valuation on the basis of replacement values, appraisers will use a formula that will approximate the 1940-41 figures for costs of materials and labor. By taking 80 per cent of the 1943 cost estimates, the appraisers will come within two per cent of the 1940-41 range, Mr. Mounts said.

STEERS BRING OWNER $15,500

W. A. Mautz and Son Sell 37
Head for Record Price of $37.25 a Hundred.

Some pretty high priced beef will be soon distributed to New York City customers of Armour and Co. as a result of a record local purchase of steers made through the Marion Livestock association Tuesday.

The Armour company bought 37 steers from W. A. Mautz and Son of near Marion at a record price of better than $15,500 for the lot. The price paid was $37.25 a hundred pounds and the top grade cattle averaged 1,100 pounds apiece. The price brought the "westerns" is one of the highest ever paid here and is exceptional when compared to the record of the Chicago market which paid $34.50 per hundred for its all time high.

W. A. Bradley, manager of the Marion Livestock Co-Op said top grade cattle here ordinarily bring an average high of from $34 to $34.50 per hundred.

The Mautz bought the cattle a year ago last fall as feeder stock, fattening the Herefords before placing them on the market. All were in top condition which was given as the prime factor for the high price paid rather than any fluctuation in the market price.

The cattle were bought for Armour through the local co-op and were not offered at the regular Monday sale, Bradley said. They will be shipped to New York this week.

'FAVORITE SON' BANNER VOTED TO TAFT TODAY

Formal Action Taken by State
G.O.P. Committee at Columbus.

By The Associated Press
COLUMBUS, Jan. 7.—Two Cincinnati residents will carry Ohio's favorite son presidential banners to the Democratic and Republican national conventions in Philadelphia next summer.

The Republican state central and executive committee meets today to place its official stamp of approval on Sen. Robert A. Taft as favorite son to back Taft's declared candidacy.

The Democratic organization, meeting yesterday, gave the honor to William A. Julian, octogenarian treasurer of the United States since 1933.

To Name Full State

The Republicans were expected to go further than the Democrats did by selecting a full slate of 44 district delegates and nine delegates-at-large to the G.O.P. national convocation. One of the delegates-at-large will be U. S. Sen. John W. Bricker, himself a presidential candidate four years ago, who will lead the Ohio delegation to the City of Brotherly Love.

State Treasurer Don H. Ebricht was the likely "second choice" while the rest of the delegates at large read like the Who's Who of the Ohio Republican party.

Apparently assured of places were Governor Herbert; Republican State Chairman Fred Johnson; Brown of Dayton; National Committeewoman Katharine Kennedy Brown of Dayton; National Committeeman and Congressman Clarence Brown of Blanchester, who is managing Taft's campaign.

Probable choices are former Gov. Myers V. Cooper and former Republican State Chairman Ed D. Schorr, both of Cincinnati; and Congresswoman Frances Bolton of Cleveland.

53 Votes for State

Ohio will have 53 full votes at the national gathering, getting two delegates for each congressman and senator and a bonus of three because the state went Republican in the 1944 election.

2 BIG CIO UNIONS DEMAND PAY HIKE

By The United Press
Two large CIO unions demanded wage boosts for their 1,100,000 members today, as one large electrical manufacturer cut prices as much as 10 per cent in an announced effort to stabilize prices and wages.

Walter P. Reuther, president of the United Auto Workers (CIO), said its 600,000 union followers "will demand and win" a new round of pay increases. He declined to state a specific figure, but was reported favoring a 25-cent-an-hour wage hike.

The United Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers (CIO) with 300,000 members announced it would seek "substantial wage increases" from three major electrical manufacturers—General Electric, Westinghouse, and General Motors Electrical Division.

Hotpoint, Inc., large Chicago subsidiary of General Electric, announced it was following the lead of its parent organization in reducing prices as much as 10 per cent on electric refrigerators, ranges and other products.

James J. Nanve, president of Hotpoint, said the price slash was intended to fight inflation and would result in $200 mark down on some items.

White House Press Secretary Charles O. Ross said President Truman was "very gratified" to hear of the price cut.

FIRST BUTTER PRICE DROP

CINCINNATI, Jan. 7.—The wholesale price of butter dropped two cents to 64 cents a pound in Cincinnati today, but even so some retail stores were charging $1.02 to $1.04 a pound. It was the first reduction since the upward trend which began three months ago and pushed up the price 20 cents a pound.

Some Of Salient Sentences From Truman Message Text

By The Associated Press
WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—Highlights from President Truman's state-of-the-union message to congress today:

On this occasion, above all others, the congress and the president should concentrate their attention, not upon party but upon country.

We do not believe that men exist merely to strengthen the state or to be cogs in an economic machine.

Whether discrimination is based on race, or creed, or color, or land of origin, it is utterly contrary to American ideals of democracy.

Our (social security) system has gaps and inconsistencies; it is only half finished.

It is deplorable that in a nation as rich as ours there are millions of children who do not have adequate schoolhouses or enough teachers.

We should now establish an executive department (for health, education and security).

Until we can overcome the present drastic housing shortage, we must extend and strengthen rent control.

We must continue to erect multiple-purpose dams on our great rivers to extend our inland waterways and to provide hydroelectric power. This public power must not be monopolized for private gain.

We can lift our standard of living to nearly double what it was 10 years ago. We can go far toward stamping out poverty in our generation.

Competition is seriously limited today in many industries by the concentration of economic power and other elements of monopoly.

Our 40-cent minimum wage is inadequate and obsolete. I recommend lifting the minimum wage to 75 cents an hour.

We are giving, and will continue to give, our full support to the United Nations.

Yet so long as there remains serious opposition to the ideals of a peaceful world, we must maintain strong armed forces.

A favorable decision (on universal training) at an early date is of world importance.

The United States is engaged today in many international activities directed toward the creation of lasting peaceful relationships among nations.

Unfortunately, not all governments share the hope of the people of the United States that economic reconstruction in many areas of the world can be achieved through cooperative effort among nations.

We must persevere and we must

Message Sets Stage for New Partisan Fight

By The Associated Press
WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—President Truman asked congress today to vote every individual taxpayer an immediate $40 "cost of living" tax cut for himself and each dependent and to raise corporation taxes by $3,200,000,000 to offset it.

He thus laid the groundwork for another tax battle with the Republican-controlled house and senate in a state of the union address on the second day of the 1948 session.

The recommendation ran sharply counter to a $5,600,000,000 G.O.P. tax cutting measure sponsored by Chairman Knutson (R-Minn) of the house ways and means committee which would give income tax payers percentage cuts all along the line and leave corporation taxes unchanged.

Other Recommendations

Mr. Truman's 5,000-word message prepared for a joint session of the two chambers also called for:

Enactment of the 10-point anti-inflation program he submitted to the recent special session, including standby wage-price control and rationing authority. The bulk of this program was turned down by the Republican leadership.

Prompt congressional approval of an initial expenditure of $6,800,000,000 to finance the European recovery program—the Marshall plan—for 15 months from next April 1 as a "decisive contribution to world peace."

Quick action to set up a program of universal training as the foundation of a national security program, and maintenance of strong armed forces as long as "there remains serious opposition to the ideals of a peaceful world."

An increase in the minimum wage from 40 to 75 cents an hour.

Extension and strengthening of rent controls which are due to expire Feb. 29.

Broadened social security coverage and increased benefit payments.

Legislation to protect the civil rights of every individual.

A national health program financed by compulsory insurance.

Mr. Truman said he wants to keep revenue collections where they are and still help those who need relief to "buy the necessities of life."

Asserting that corporate profits reached the "extraordinarily high level" of $12,500,000,000 in 1946 and $17,000,000,000 in 1947, the Chief Executive said it was proper to shift "a larger share of the load" to big businesses.

The proposed individual tax credit would date back to Jan. 1. The President left for future explanation how the increased levies he proposed on corporate profits would operate and gave no details of a suggested "appropriate adjustment for small corporations."

Two "Necessities" Linked

Mr. Truman coupled American economic aid under the proposed European recovery plan with armed might as equal necessities in keeping peace.

He said the $400,000,000 assistance program voted last year for Greece and Turkey enabled them to preserve their integrity "against foreign pressures."

Continued preservation of Greek and Turkish integrity, he said, "will have a powerful effect on other nations of the middle east and Europe struggling to maintain their independence."

The President gave no clue to the size of the proposed budget for the fiscal year starting next July 1. The budget estimates will be sent to congress Monday.

However, he declared that "government expenditures have been and must continue to be held to the lowest safe level."

He said expenditures have been cut from more than $80,000,000,000 in the 1946 fiscal year to less than $50,000,000,000 in the current fiscal year ending next June 30, while the number of civilian employees has been reduced from 1,100,000 to 1,000,000.

He laid out the promise of having nations elsewhere in working for world economic recovery and said he will submit to the congress a special report on the progress of the program.

He said the program has been successful in many areas and that the United States is engaged today in many international activities directed toward the creation of lasting peaceful relationships among nations.

Unfortunately, not all governments share the hope of the people of the United States that economic reconstruction in many areas of the world can be achieved through cooperative effort among nations.

We must persevere and we must

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—Maj. Gen. Bennett E. Meyers, accused of lying to the senate war investigating committee about his private wartime business deals and of inducing another witness to commit perjury, pleaded innocent in federal court today.

Federal Judge David A. Pine, before whom Meyers was arraigned, set the trial for Feb. 16.

Judge Pine gave defense counsel 10 days to file motions attacking Meyers' indictment.

Meyers was indicted on three charges of perjury and on three that he persuaded Elmer H. Lamarre, 35, a former business associate of the general, to tell falsehoods to the senate committee.

Lamarre also was indicted on three charges of perjury and pleaded guilty yesterday before Judge Pine. Sentence against Lamarre, a resident of Dayton, O., was deferred pending a report

The complete list of directors as elected yesterday is as follows: H. B. Walker, J. H. Walker, Jr., J. H. Walker, E. A. Thompson, O. Brown, U. A. Ryan, H. Bush and John H. Cline.

Officers, as elected, are: J. H. Walker, Jr., president; J. H. Walker, Jr., vice president; J. H. Walker, Jr., secretary; J. H. Walker, Jr., treasurer; J. H. Walker, Jr., auditor.

The stockholders of the Fairfield Engineering Co. met at the company's offices on Barnhart street yesterday afternoon to elect officers and directors for the year ending June 30, 1948.

The Fairfield Engineering Co. was organized by H. B. Walker in 1919. It has since that time been one of the leading engineering firms in the Lancaster area.

The company's principal business is the design and construction of industrial buildings and bridges. It has a long and successful record in these fields.

TRUMAN TAX PLAN CALLED "POLITICAL"

By The Associated Press
WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—Republican cries of "political" and "unsound" today greeted reports that President Truman might propose tax relief for low income groups only if the revenue loss were balanced by higher levies on business profits.

A close associate of Mr. Truman declared earlier this week that the chief executive was weighing such a suggestion from some of his advisers.

Without waiting to hear whether the President would include this idea in his state-of-the-union message today, influential G.O.P. members of both house and senate left no doubt that they are all set to fight it.

At least two Democrats, however, said they would go along with Mr. Truman's proposal to the Republican bill to cut income taxes for all individuals by a total of $4,000,000,000 without disturbing present corporation taxes.

Senator Lucas of Illinois, the Democratic whip, said he had been working on a bill somewhat along the same lines as those mentioned by the White House advisers.

He would revive the wartime income-protection plan, a special levy on all profits above the level of $100,000 a year, and apply it to the present $200 personal exemption to $700 and applying the income-splitting community property principle to all states.

The President's plan, he said, would be a "political" move to win the support of the low income groups in the coming election.

New Galion Mayor Pledges Cooperation On Light Plant

Special to The Star
GALION, Jan. 7. — Dr. H. H. Hartmann, who at 77 came back to head the 1943 city administration, promised a packed city council chamber Tuesday night that cooperation of mayor and council on Galion's crucial power problem will be forthcoming in his administration.

More than 50 businessmen, industrialists and civic leaders jammed council chambers as the new council met for the first meeting of the year. A clash with a Galion attorney over the power situation which brought the peppy mayor to his feet with a promise of administration cooperation brought a hearty round of applause from the taxpayers.

Attorney Speaks
Previously, Kenneth M. Petri, Galion attorney, took the floor and called attention to the large lobby present, indicating that the group was present to look into the question of adequate electric power for Galion. He stated that it is the number one problem to be considered by the new administration, and asked the cooperation of the administration. Petri reviewed circumstances leading to the development of a power problem. These included a shut-down of industry last year on at least two occasions, one for a period of two weeks, when power had to be curtailed while repairs were being made at the Galion Municipal Light and Power plant.

Petri quoted from surveys made by two engineering firms to show the Galion power plant can not produce adequate power. He said a single day's cost for necessary supplementary power from an outside utility would cost less than a single day's loss of wages of Galion workers if a shut-down came again. He charged it would take two or three years to make improvements at the Galion power plant to produce adequate power.

Mayor Responds

This brought Mayor Hartmann to his feet with the declaration, "I want to refute that statement." To Petri's statement that a Galion manufacturer could not connect spot-welding equipment at his factory because a light plant official had told the industrialist that power would be cut off at the factory if the equipment were installed, Mayor Hartmann asked for the name of the light plant official who made the statement. A spokesman for the company said the name would have to be secured from an official of the factory.

Mayor Hartmann proceeded with a history of the Galion Municipal Light and Power plant. He explained that the plant was now in its present "run-down condition" because no new equipment had been installed since 1937, that nothing had been done to improve the plant since that time, that the plant can be rehabilitated, and that he was not talking against the outside power. He said, "I will, and I believe the council will, give these problems cooperation."

Lee Johnston, Galion businessman, also pleaded for more power, declaring he was unable to secure adequate power for his electrical appliance business.

Says Capacity Inadequate

Attorney Petri again addressed the group, stating that the light plant, operating at full capacity, can not generate adequate power. He said that he expected soon to present a petition from citizens in the North End asking for annexation of a new home section and that these citizens are concerned about light, sewer, water and other developments.

During organization of the new body, with President Otto Pfeiffer in charge, James A. Nichols was elected council clerk, and Ralph Graham was chosen vice president.

The annual report of the firemen's relief and pension fund submitted by the board of trustees, was accepted, showing a balance of $21,957.52. The temporary appropriation ordinance for the next three months will be submitted for vote at an adjourned meeting next Tuesday.

Council committees appointed are: claims, finances and investigations, O. E. Neal, Ralph Graham and J. A. Anker; public utilities, M. G. Thompson, W. H. Kunkel and Floyd Myers; public property, Myers, R. W. Stahl and Graham; streets, alleys and sewers, Kunkel, Anker and Thompson; laws, ordinances, petitions, rules and public printing, Graham, Thompson, Myers; police, fire and health, Anker, Neal and Stahl; parks, playgrounds and recreation, Stahl, Neal and Kunkel.

of $6,800,000,000 as the initial outlay for the first 15 months.

But while the administration time table calls for the program to go into operation with this money on April 1, there were fresh predictions even before the speech was made—from Republican Senator Taft of Ohio and Democratic Senator George of Georgia—that July 1 will be more like it.

The shape of the foreign aid program will be determined largely by hearings starting Thursday in the senate foreign relations committee and next week in the house foreign affairs committee. There is little objection in congress to helping European democracies, but there is sharp disagreement on how to go about it and how much to spend.

Points Stressed by Truman

"We are following a sound, constructive and practical course in carrying out our determination to achieve peace," Mr. Truman said. "We are fighting poverty, hunger and suffering."

"This leads to peace—not war. We are building toward a world where all nations, large and small alike, may live free from the fear of aggression."

"This leads to peace—not war. Above all else, we are striving to achieve a concord among the peoples of the world based upon the dignity of the individual and the brotherhood of man."

"This leads to peace—not war. Devoting a large share of his message to a domestic program of 'economic, social and moral achievement' the President asserted these goals are endangered by the spiral of inflation which he said 'holds the threat of another depression.'"

Says Issue Is Clear

He said that events since he described his anti-inflation views to the special session Nov. 17 "have made it even clearer that all 10 points" of his program "are essential."

"We must deal effectively and at once with the high cost of living," Mr. Truman asserted.

"We must stop the spiral of inflation."

"I trust that within the shortest possible time the congress will make available to the government the weapons that are so desperately needed in the fight against inflation."

On the broad domestic front, Mr. Truman said the government should aim at five goals "which have the greatest bearing upon the foundations of our democracy and the happiness of our people."

ple." He said it should be possible to accomplish them within the next ten years.

He described the government's first goal as that of "securing fully the essential human rights of its citizens."

He said he will send up a special message later recommending equal opportunities in education, jobs and voting for persons of every race, creed or color along the lines suggested by his committee on civil rights.

To extend civil rights elsewhere, he said, the time has come to admit Alaska and Hawaii to statehood.

On "Human Resource" Goal: On goal number two, development of "human resources," he recommended:

Extension of unemployment compensation, old age benefits and survivors' benefits "to millions who are not now protected" and an increase in the size of the payments.

A national health program with the ultimate aim of "a comprehensive insurance system to protect all our people equally against insecurity and ill health."

Federal financial aid to the states to equalize educational opportunities.

tive department for the administration of health, educational and security programs.

A long range housing program including federal financial help to produce more housing at lower prices, and public housing for low income families.

Misuse of Wealth
On the third goal of preserving "our national wealth against those who would misuse it for selfish gain," the President urged:

Application of Tennessee valley flood control and power experience to the development of other great river valleys.

Development of mineral resources and new supplies of critical materials with provision for their stockpiling.

Expansion of the reclamation program to cover additional millions of acres.

As a start toward the fourth goal—to raise the standard of living—the President suggested an increase in the minimum wage from 40 to 75 cents an hour, "modernized" farm price supports which will afford reasonable protection against fluctuations in production and demand, and expanded crop insurance coverage.

The President said he still is of the opinion that the Taft-Hartley labor control act he vetoed last year is unsatisfactory but that as long as it remains a law "I shall carry out my constitutional duty to administer it."

The fifth goal — world peace based on "justice and equality of all nations"—necessitates, he said, a realization that "loss of independence by any nation adds directly to the insecurity of the United States and all free nations."

Thanks, Folks...

Thanks for your confidence. We have just closed our books with the biggest sales total in the long history of this store. Again, thanks.

Early last year we promised that we would continue to hold the price line and our greatly lowered margin of profit proves that we have done so. Your increased patronage has shown clearly that you had faith in our promises.

So once again we pledge you our word that we shall continue to absorb any price advances which may be placed upon us. We shall continue to sell good, guaranteed merchandise at our old prices regardless of cost. Many of these prices are way below the old OPA price ceilings.

There are a number of items such as Electrical Appliances and some few other items which are "fair traded" in Ohio. On such items we are obliged by law to sell at the price fixed by the manufacturer. In all other cases you may continue in the faith that we shall save money for you.

We are very proud of our reputation for lower prices. And we are very proud also to tell you that you are always sure of a friendly welcome at the busy store where every employee is proud to be associated not grudgingly, but boasting that he is the best paid man in the city in his line of work.

To all of the fine folks who have never traded with us we extend a special invitation to give us a trial. You will like our prices—you will like trading with us and you can just bet your last dollar that we will please you or we don't want your money.

Love's Perilous Path

By ADELE GARRISON

PHIL VERITZEN'S reaction to the situation was not surprising to me, nor to Dicky. He always can be counted on to make difficulties in a situation confronting him. In this case, I could not see but one deduction to be made from my father's extraordinary letter. He must be planning to go out for notes in Cleveland on Olga's handwriting, and her own special notepaper, which I knew, bore her royal signature. Philip never permitted to discard. As always, I knew that he would accede to the demand Olga did. He is as clay in the hands of Olga. But, as I saw his eyes, turned back to me, questioning, I wondered if he were going to turn down my letter. But she spoke to her husband. "Please, dear Philip," she said, "talk to Madge before you decide." Even in the tension of the moment, I had difficulty in suppressing a smile. Dicky covered his short of amusement with a straining cough—for we both knew who would be the decision-maker. Though, with infinite tact, Olga would save her husband's inflated ego by a clever pretense that it was really he who was having the final word on the question. "Of course, my dearest," Olga's adoring husband said. "Would you like to be alone with her? Dicky and I can go into the library." "Oh, no indeed," she told him quickly. "I want you both here. We have no secrets from you, Madge and I."

There was just a touch of enigmatic amusement in her eyes as they met mine. Then it was gone, and she spoke earnestly. "In this letter, my dear Madge," she said, "your father says that this Mr. K will explain to you about this. Is there anything, even the slightest, that you can tell me?" "I didn't wait for his explanation," I said. "As soon as Dicky and I had read the letter, we came up here."

Philip Veritzen laughed harshly. "Your usual cleverness, my dear Madge," he said. "What you didn't know, you couldn't tell."

I saw my husband begin to swell up in anger. Turkey-cock fashion, and spoke quickly. "Nothing of the sort, Phil," I said with emphasis. "If you'll look at my father's letter again, you will see that he said he wished to explain this to Olga himself, that it was her due, and that he would see her within twenty-four hours."

"That is correct, Philip," Olga said with a little sigh. "I overlooked it in my surprise at his request. Forgive me, Madge, for asking you that question."

Philip Veritzen was scanning my father's letter again, but when he looked up he was frowning. "Yes, yes," he said, "I can see that he said that, but that does not alter the impossibility of this request. I yield to no one in my admiration for Charles, but—"

One Man's Opinion

By WALTER KIRKMAN

New York Democrats charge Gov. Dewey with having a $700,000,000 surplus. . . This is a serious charge and should eliminate him from White House consideration. . . .

In these days, any man who can't get rid of $700,000,000 just ain't tryin'

You can't blame a man for running for the White House . . . Or any other house that might be vacant. . . .

There's an Irish family here with 11 children to find a home. . . We should know now whether there is anything to the "Luck of the Irish."

But the report is that more houses will be built in '48 than were in '47. . . And many of those built in '47 are still standing. . . .

O.S.U. Professor To Talk At LaRue P.T.A. Meeting

Dr. Leland Jacobs from the college of education at Ohio State university in Columbus, will be the guest speaker at the regular meeting of the Parent-Teacher association in LaRue Jan. 12, Mrs. M. J. Knapp, program chairman, has announced. The meeting will be held in the school auditorium at 8 p. m., with guests present from other communities throughout the county.

Dr. Jacobs will speak chiefly on kindergartens and the lower grades in school with special emphasis on the teaching of reading and the new methods which parents should understand in order to cooperate with teachers in the training of their children, it was explained.

Several parents and teachers from Marion county heard Dr. Jacobs when he took part in the County Teachers' workshop held in Marion last summer. A special invitation is being extended to other schools and the parent-teacher groups throughout the county. D. T. Mills, county superintendent of schools, said.

There will be an outstanding speaker and parents of the members and the public are invited to attend. The troop, sponsored by Marion Lodge No. 32, B. P. O. SPECULATOR RISE IN SEPTEMBER REVEALED

By The Associated Press
WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—The number of wheat speculators on the Chicago market increased nearly 27 per cent in a three-day period last September, the agriculture department reported today in making public a new list of 5,357 traders.

The speculator total jumped from 3,827 on Sept. 17 to 4,852 on Sept. 20 during a sharp break in the market which sent wheat prices tumbling the 10 cents a bushel daily limit for three days running, the report said.

The Sept. 20 total compared with 1,240 speculators active 16½ months before. It was exclusive of 515 traders classified as hedgers engaged in non-speculative deals.

Today's list failed to supply the names of any additional public officials for congressional investigators seeking to determine whether government "insiders" have been profiting from commodity transactions.

It repeated the names of 100 federal, state and local officials as well as those of big traders holding 200,000 bushels or more which were first made public last week.

COMPULSORY MILITARY TRAINING—NO. 3
This is the last of three stories on compulsory military training which may be a hot issue in this 1948 congress.

WASHINGTON.—THERE are many arguments for and against compulsory military training now for young men 18 to 20.

In time such a program would give this country a big pool of men who had had some military training.

In an emergency those still in training—900,000 a year—could be pulled right into the armed forces. And those who previously had had the training, but were civilians again, might fit into the armed forces faster than those never trained.

But with a bill now before congress to set up such a program, this is the main question: Is such a program necessary right now to keep this country prepared against attack and discourage any would-be aggressor from starting war?

The arguments revolve around that question. Here are some of them, for and against the program.

Is it necessary to start such a program now?

We need to start it now. Right now the United Nations can't preserve peace. UN lacks the machinery, a world police force, to do it.

But the world is in bad, unsteady shape, with Communism creeping across Europe from Russia.

If we're prepared with a reserve of trained men, an enemy would hesitate to attack us or start a war.

In this way, besides protecting ourselves, we'd help UN keep peace until UN was able to do it.

If we're militarily strong, other nations will have more confidence in us and so be more willing to resist pressure from any would-be aggressor.

RUSSIA IS NOT BELIEVED to have the atomic bomb now. It may have it within three to eight years. At that time, if we're unprepared, Russia might attack us.

To get prepared and keep world peace, we need to start right now to build up a reserve of trained men.

Against—We shouldn't start such a program now. We joined UN to help keep world peace collectively. We should try harder to make UN work better. Training young men

STEEL INDUSTRY ON RATIONING SPOT

By The Associated Press
NEW YORK, Jan. 7.—The steel industry will be on the spot Thursday when executives meet with department of commerce officials to discuss a steel allocation program, The Iron Age, national metal-working trade weekly, said today.

Either way the decision goes, it's in for criticism, the paper contended.

Steel firms will be asked voluntarily to allocate 10 to 15 per cent more steel to the farm implement industry, the petroleum industry and freight car manufacturers. If they do, other steel customers will get less steel. If they don't, they run the risk of future strict controls backed by governmental authority.

The paper said, "It looks this week as if the industry would be forced into a shotgun wedding with unprecedented peacetime controls—mild or otherwise."

The second freight rate advance "will force additional steel firms to withdraw from distant territories because present steelmaking costs will not allow them to absorb the additional freight necessary to remain competitive in these areas," the paper said.

Steel mills, "desperate for scrap to maintain steelmaking schedules," are reentering the market, the paper said, but its composite price for No. 1 heavy melting steel scrap remained at $40 a gross ton. It put steel operations at 98 per cent of rated capacity, up 1 point on the week.

The KAISER and the FRAZER need no changes to bring them up-to-date!

You really should investigate what the Kaiser and the Frazer offer you before you buy any car! If you don't, you may let habile lead you into an investment which can soon be greatly depreciated. You might buy a "new" car which is merely a "face-lifted" prewar model. The chances are that such a "new" car will be obsolete when its manufacturer gets around to announcing a really new, postwar automobile! What happens to your investment then?

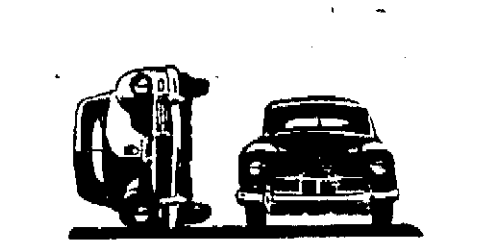

The ride you never forget! K-F's engineers discarded prewar ideas of chassis construction. By redistributing mass and load, and by creating a ride never known before in any car.

Moving the rear seat well forward of the rear wheels provides twice as much luggage space as in the highest priced cars on the road! There is ample room for seven large bags in this spacious 27-cubic-foot compartment—in addition to the spare wheel and tire.

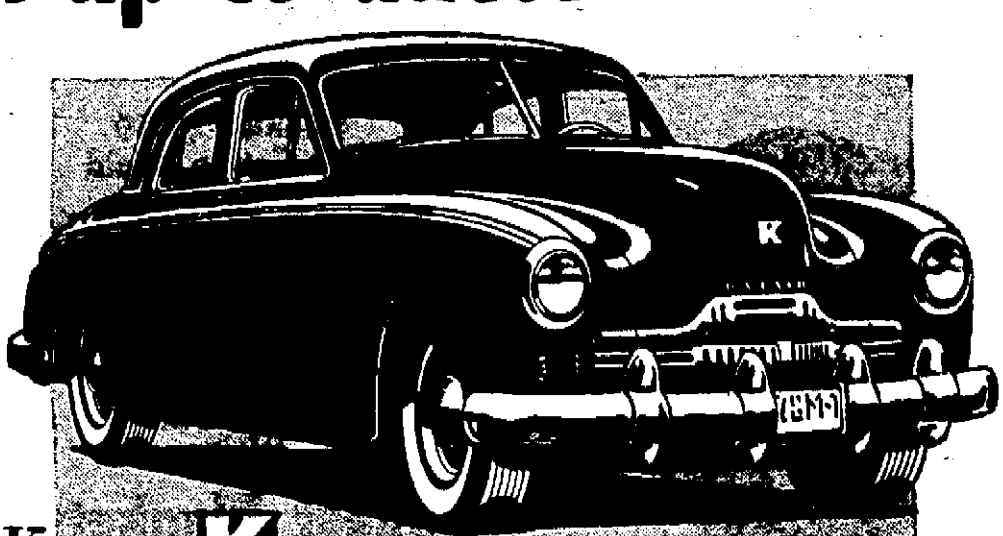

You take no such gamble when you buy a Kaiser or a Frazer. These cars are new from the ground up. And their newness is by no means confined to the styling which has been so flatteringly imitated! There is new design, new engineering and new manufacturing technique in virtually every feature of these ultra-modern cars. For proof, examine the Kaiser-Frazer exclusives described below—just a few among scores! Come in and see the others!

Wider than high by 8½ inches! But that's only half the story of the super-safe roadability of the Kaiser and the Frazer. A low center of gravity and effortless steering give you that feeling that car and road were made for each other!

BLAMES COSTS ON PRESIDENT

Dewey Charges Truman Responsible for Present High Prices.

By The Associated Press
ALBANY, N. Y., Jan. 7.—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey blamed President Truman today for the "exorbitant" cost of living and submitted to the New York legislature a program to check inflation in the state, highlighted by a pledge of no new taxes.
Dewey's plan, the increase in debt and other policies of President Roosevelt in the 1930s also contributed to the present situation in which our country finds itself," Dewey asserted in his annual message to the 171st session of the legislature.
"Such a situation as we have today in the nation," the governor insisted. "Could have come about only as the cumulative result of a history of errors over many years."

Needs Careful Handling
"Clearly, Dewey said, the situation cries out for the most careful husbanding of our resources" in the face of soaring costs and the need to maintain essential state services.

He also proposed continuation of the state's standby rent control law and the commercial rent laws for one year.

Dewey, an undeclared candidate for the Republican presidential nomination, said "the danger of runaway price inflation resulting from wartime pressures, was clear at the end of hostilities."

"However, instead of controls being maintained until peacetime production could get started," he said, "the entire structure of wartime inflation control was undermined by executive order on Oct. 30, 1945, relaxing wage controls."

"This fatal action," he continued, "together with bad enforcement generally, destroyed the effectiveness of price controls by the summer of 1946. This was launched the wage-price-profit spiral which soon wrecked the last vestiges of inflation control and brought about the present exorbitant scale of living costs."

Fate Finger on Answer
"In greater production lies the direct answer to the shortages of the things that are at the seat of national and world inflation," the governor told the Republican-controlled legislature.

To help combat inflation, Dewey said, there are some of the things the state government has done and proposes to do in the coming year:

"1. We have kept expenses down to the limit possible without impairing essential services to our people."

"2. We have restrained expenditures wherever possible on every kind of public work, particularly highways and parkways, because of the high cost and the directly inflationary effect of such governmental expenditures."

"3. We have continued our policies in every direction to increase the productivity of our state and enterprise within it."

TOLEDO, O., Jan. 7.—President James D. Mooney said yesterday that the high cost of living is the direct result of government expenditures.

ADDRESSES ROTARY

Zanesville Lady Lost 35 Lbs. Thanks to Renel

Mrs. Clara Cline, 513 Meacham Ave., Zanesville, Ohio, writes us, "I feel 100% better since taking Renel and I have lost 35 pounds. Before I felt tired and lazy but now I have more pep than I have had in years."
Hundreds of others have obtained similar relief from the social and physical discomfort of being overweight. Renel is the original grapefruit juice recipe for taking off ugly fat. It's simple. Just go to your drugstore and ask for 4 ounces of liquid Renel. Pour the contents into a pint bottle—add enough grapefruit juice to fill the bottle. Then take just two tablespoons a day. That's all there is to it. If the very first bottle doesn't show you the simple, easy way to lose bulky fat and help regain slender, more graceful curves—if reducing pounds and inches of excess fat don't just seem to disappear almost like magic from neck, chin, arms, bust, abdomen, hips, calves and ankles, just return the empty bottle to the manufacturer for your money back. If you need more know a hungry moment while taking Renel—no starvation diet—no printed diet list to buy—no vitamins to fortify you against weakness while going hungry, for you WON'T be hungry. Don't be switched to another product. Insist on and obtain genuine Renel.

Roving Reports

NEW YORK

Guidance experts never fail to give advice to the people who need it most—godfathers.

Their books on the care and guidance of ordinary children have been a success. But they are all written by parents—the people who are children. You can find there how to burp a baby, how to tell whether he has colic or not, how to tell him when the stork and who brings the baby.

But a man will scan them in for the slightest hint on how to guide a child. This is a serious and un-pleasant and is a crime against a large and appreciable class. Few give much thought to the matter, but actually there are probably more godfathers in America than fathers.

Take a family with four children, for example. They all have the same father—unless mama took a trip to Reno along the way.

TOMORROW I'M going around to see him and say: "Terry, I don't care what happens to your daddy, I'm not going to make you go to college. I'll get you a job racking up balls in a poolroom kid."

Maybe the little fellow will like me better. But somebody still ought to write that book on how to be popular with your godchildren. Believe me, the fathers have it easy. You have to do more than pass out cigars to be a good godfather.

Simple Suggestion Wins $2,140 Award

By The United Press
ATLANTA, Ga. — What is believed to be the largest award ever made by the armed forces to a civilian employee has been given to Paul Salvo of Atlanta. He simply suggested that the Army and Navy use the timber from its own reservation rather than buy it elsewhere.

Salvo, a former worker for the Engineer Corps here and now a lumberman at Durham, N. C., was awarded $2,140 for his idea, which engineer officials in Washington estimate will save the government some $3,578,002 in its timber purchases.

His idea was put forward as the result of the "suggestion program" begun by the armed forces during the war.

STATE G.O.P.

Auditor Joseph T. Ferguson, who was the favorite son four years ago and who had threatened to dispute Julian's selection, withdrew from the contest in the interest of party harmony.

The reelection of a favorite son other than President Truman, who is expected to seek reelection, was necessary because the President has not yet declared his candidacy. Under Ohio law, delegates can be pledged only to candidates who have given their written permission to the delegates to support them.

The Democrats, in an amazing demonstration of harmony unknown to them in other years, went through their meeting without taking action on the selection of delegates or the choice of a state convention city and date.

State Chairman Albert A. Horstman of Dayton said the wishes of labor would be considered in picking the 12 delegates-at-large. They would include, he predicted, Jack Kroil of Cincinnati, national chairman of the CIO-Political Action Committee; ALF Leader Phil Hannah of Columbus, and A. F. Whitney of Cleveland president of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen.

RAILROADS GRANTED OHIO RATE INCREASE

By The Associated Press
COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 7.—The state utilities commission today granted Ohio railroads temporary increases in intra-state freight rates in line with increases authorized by the interstate commerce commission in interstate rates.

The commission order cancels a 10 per cent increase in intra-state rates granted last October and authorizes a 20 per cent increase with certain point-to-point exceptions.

The new rates become effective one day after the railroads file their new schedules with the commission.

The increases will remain in effect until June 30, 1948, "unless sooner terminated or modified or superseded by further order," Chairman Harry M. Miller said.

William Blake, superintendent of rates and services, estimated the new increases would give the railroads a $54,000,000 increase in revenue over a period of a year.

Exempted from the new increase were shipments of steel plant slag from Youngstown to Lordstown, O., iron ore from Massillon to Canton and coke from Youngstown to Hubbard and Warren.

On these shipments increases granted last October remain in effect.

The order also continued in effect certain schedules issued by the Pennsylvania railroad, the Erie railroad, Baltimore & Ohio railroad, and the New York Central system, naming rates on coke, coke breeze, coke dust and coke screenings.

The commission said "the increase permitted may be applied to joint rates with water carriers or motor carriers to the same extent and in the same manner as is provided for all rail rates."

Chairman Miller said the increases were made temporary to allow the commission time to examine fully all details of the problem.

The commission's order said there was "general agreement" that the railroads needed substantial increases in their freight traffic, but there was "sharp disagreement as to the amount which may be lawfully authorized as just and reasonable."

"Upon the record before the interstate commerce commission and the petition of the railroad carriers," the state commission said "we are convinced that there is need for immediate action permitting further substantial increase in the rates and charges on the petitioning carriers."

EUROPEAN PLANE CRASHES, KILLS 16

By The Associated Press
PARIS, Jan. 7.—Sixteen persons perished and seven others were hurt in two separate European plane crashes last night. Three Americans were among the dead.

An Air France DC-4 from Brussels crashed and burned while coming in for landing at Le Bourget airport in Paris, killing 15 of the 16 persons aboard, including the three Americans.

A British European Airways twin-engine Viking hit a tree in the rain while coming into London's suburban Northolt airfield from Glasgow. The pilot was killed and six of the other 14 persons aboard were hurt.

A Polish woman passenger was the only person to survive the French crash. She was thrown clear with two other persons, but they died later of their injuries.

Air France identified the Americans as:
Mrs. Jane Wallace Burrell, 35, visa clerk in the U.S. embassy here of Censdale, N. Y.
John Pover, address not immediately available.
Louis Sibire, address not immediately available.

$1,500,000 FIRE HITS N. Y. PIER AND SHIPS

By The Associated Press
NEW YORK, Jan. 7.—A 1,000-foot pier and its cargo were destroyed, a freighter damaged and two barges burned in a $1,500,000 fire which raged on the Brooklyn waterfront early today.

Lower Manhattan and a large section of the harbor were lit up at the height of the blaze.

The pier fire, which broke out shortly before midnight, was reported under control about 1 a. m., but burned into the daylight hours.

Three hundred firemen with five fireboats and 35 pieces of land apparatus fought the flames. Four firemen fell overboard from a fireboat.

The S. S. Rio Parana, an 8,498-ton freighter of the Argentine state merchant fleet, was towed into the East river where it was engulfed in the fire. The freighter blazed up again a short time later, but the flames again were quickly extinguished. Police said the ship was not badly damaged.

FACTORY AND FARM ROBOTS PREDICTED

By The United Press
CINCINNATI—Abraham Sobie, a University of Cincinnati mathematic student working on his Ph.D. degree, believes he has worked out a theory which will speed the day when mechanical brains can take over factories and farms.

Sobie is 26. He taught physics at the University of Delaware working on automatic control of planes and ships. His theory establishes the reaction of automatic controls, inability to determine the reaction time by theory forces scientists to test each control in the laboratory and establish individual figures for each.

"A robot has a reaction time just like a man," Sobie says. "With mathematical equations and formulas for reaction periods, a manufacturer of automatic controls can calculate in advance the effect of this reaction time. He can compensate for it in the design. Hence, controllers can be made more precise and applied to more operations in industry and agriculture."

Reaction Time Formula
As an example, Sobie says a tractor automatically plowing a field, guided by a seeing-eye tracing a map, would be thrown off course with each turn by the reaction time. Soon the tractor would be entirely off course.

The same thing holds true for automatic pilots on ships and airplanes, the youthful physics student says. Errors caused by reaction time require human adjustment every now and then.

By applying the theory into the design of the machinery, Sobie would compensate for the reaction time and eliminate the continual checking of instruments by humans.

DELEGATES NAMED BY DISTRICT G.O.P.

Convention Group Chosen at Upper Sandusky.

Eighth district Republicans elected delegates and alternates to the national convention to be held at Philadelphia in June and nominated district committeeman and committeewoman at a caucus held last night at the Wyandot county courthouse in Upper Sandusky. H. David Sears of Harpster, district committeeman, called the meeting and was the presiding officer.

O. H. Holburn of Crawford county and C. C. O'Brian of Hardin county, were elected delegates and Harold A. Patrick of the Davis-Gooding pike, Marion and Edwin S. Naus of Upper Sandusky, were named alternates.

Robert L. Evans of Findlay Hancock county chairman, was nominated as district committeeman to succeed Mr. Sears who was not a candidate for the office, and Mrs. Martha Wheeler of Galion, now serving as Eighth district committeewoman, was nominated to succeed herself.

Attending from Marion were Marion E. Hinklin, chairman of the Marion county executive committee, Harold Patrick, vice chairman and Ralph Carhart, secretary of the county organization, and James E. Messinger, chairman of the Marion county central committee.

Counties in the Eighth district are Hardin, Marion, Crawford, Wyandot, Morrow and Hancock.

The rotating plan is used in selecting delegates for the national convention. In 1949 the district was represented by Lewis Francis and in 1952 Marion county will again be eligible for a delegate at the national convention. A meeting is being held at Columbus today to name state delegates to the national convention.

C. & O. Spending Two Millions at Toledo

By The Associated Press
CLEVELAND, O., Jan. 7.—The Chesapeake and Ohio railroad today announced it is spending nearly $2,000,000 in the improvement of its yards and docks at Toledo.

The announcement said the improvements would speed up dumping of coal in Great Lakes vessels and would return coal cars to the mines quicker.

The project, started May 1, 1947, is scheduled for completion by June 1, 1948.

Modernization of the yard, one of the most important on the C. & O. system, will expedite handling of coal for delivery at the Presque Isle docks and loading into freighters for movement to the upper lakes, the announcement said.

REPORT 35 MILLION 1947 MAN-DAY LOSS

By The Associated Press
WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—The bureau of labor statistics estimated today that 35,000,000 man-days of employment, the third highest total on record, were lost in work stoppages in 1947.

This was small compared with the peak of 116,000,000 man-days lost in 1946, but it was just under the next highest total of 36,000,000 in 1945.

The average man-day loss during the five-year 1935-39 period was 16,949,000. In 1937 it was 28,400,000.

The bureau's figures showed that because of record employment in 1947 the percentage of the total available working time lost due to strikes was the same as in 1937—four-tenths of one per cent. The working force in 1937 was much smaller.

The number of strikes dropped from 4,985 in 1946 to 3,800 in 1947, and the 1947 strikes were of shorter duration and involved far fewer workers. Approximately 2,200,000 went on strike in 1947, compared with 4,600,000 in 1946 and 3,470,000 in 1945.

Treasurer Hinklin Ready To Start Semi-Annual Collection.

Real estate tax books for all city and county property will be open Monday, Jan. 12, Marion E. Hinklin, Marion county treasurer, said today. Tax bills are prepared for the entire year, although only those for the first half of the year are due at this time. If a taxpayer wishes to settle for the entire year, he may do so.

The tax rate for Marion city property remains the same; $23 on each $1,000 of valuation, plus three-tenths of a mill special assessment for the Scioto-Sandusky Conservancy District.

Rates on most township properties are increased as a result of levies voted in the last election. Mr. Hinklin warns that the tax books close March 1, and that this year there will be no extensions.

McCORMICK-DEERING GIVES CORRECT WEIGHT DISTRIBUTION

TO HOLD THESE TEAT CUPS DOWN AND IN PLACE

A milking machine must provide just the right amount of weight to stretch out a cow's teats and hold them down properly. For a fast, complete job, the weight is just as necessary when you start milking as toward the end.

In the McCORMICK-DEERING Milker, scientific design of the claw helps hold the teats correctly from start to finish. Weight is distributed equally for each quarter in the teat cup assembly.

This milker doesn't depend on a filling pail and changing weight to hold cups down and keep them from creeping. There's a straight, downward pull with the correct amount of weight at all times. Let us prove what a quick, easy job the McCORMICK-DEERING can do for you.

By DR. HERMAN N. BUNDESEN
When a Spinal Disk Moves

The bones of the spine are separated and cushioned by little disks which sort of act as shock absorbers. Now and then these pads, known as discs, move out of place. As a result, pressure is put on all the nerves coming from the spinal cord at that point.

The first and chief symptom of this pressure is pain. Where it will depend, of course, on the location of the ruptured disk. It is frequently the case that in the lower part of the spine, the pain is likely to be exerted on the great sciatic nerve, which runs down the back of the leg and pain may be felt anywhere along its length.

As a rule, the ruptured disk will show up in an X-ray plate. If a diagnosis of a ruptured disk is made, many physicians think that a period of conservation treatment should be tried before resorting to operation. During the early period, the patient should be kept at complete rest in bed, and the spine immobilized, that is, kept from moving by the use of a cast or brace if necessary. The patient should also be given pain-relieving drugs if they are required.

When the acute symptoms disappear, the patient should be allowed to move about. However, the back should be protected with a brace or cast, and attempts made to correct the patient's posture.

If, with this treatment, the pain continues or there is evidence of a great deal of pressure on the nerves, or if the pain is so severe as to interfere with normal activity, operation is necessary.

In this operation, the ruptured disk is removed, and it is recommended that what is known as a spinal fusion be carried out. This consists in fusing a number of the bones of the spine together. If this fusion is not carried out, there may be disabling symptoms following the operation. It would appear that the results obtained when a fusion is done are far superior to those operations without fusion. Good results are obtained from the operation in more than three-fifths of the cases. Complete relief from all symptoms, however, may not always be secured.

Just why rupture of a disk occurs cannot always be determined. As a general rule some injury or accident is responsible.

Persons who have pain in the lower part of the back, or sciatica, of course require a thorough study by an orthopedic specialist to determine the cause. There are many conditions other than a ruptured disk, responsible for sciatica and low back pain. These include such disorders as arthritis or inflammation of the joints of the spine, muscle inflammation, and fibrosis, which is an inflammation of the connecting tissues.

SERVICE GUILD MEETING PRECEDED BY SUPPER

A potluck supper preceded a meeting of the Wesleyan Service Guild of Prospect Street Methodist church Tuesday night in the church social rooms. During the meeting, three new members, Miss Norma Lusch, Miss Barbara Withrow and Miss Mildred Patrick, were welcomed into the group. Miss Linda Call was a guest.

Mrs. Carroll Schmidt, president, presided, and 16 members responded to roll call. Committees were named for the year as follows: Miss Ruth Schott, chairman, Miss Ruth Carr, Mrs. Roland Schaber, Mrs. John Reidel and Mrs. John Boyd, devotionists; Miss Josephine Ruth, chairman, Mrs. Joseph Mehauffey, Mrs. Warren Seiter, Mrs. Kenneth Connolly and Mrs. Howard Mitchell, flowers and cards; Mrs. W. C. Call, chairman, Mrs. Adeline Hecla, Mrs. Everett Sanderson, Miss Mary Mehauffey and Mrs. Vera Wick, ways and means; and Mrs. W. J. Flach, chairman, Mrs. Mary Fairchild, Mrs. Lula Mehauffey and Mrs. Sally Grace, membership.

Devotions on the theme, "The Lord's Prayer," in charge of Miss Schott, closed the meeting. Hymns were sung by the group, and a vocal solo, "The Lord's Prayer," by Malotte, was presented by Miss Ruth Carr, accompanied at the piano by Miss Frances Hans. Hostess for the next meeting, Feb. 3, will be Miss Mary Mehauffey, Mrs. Warren Seiter and Mrs. Howard Mitchell.

NAVY CHANGED BY ARGENTINA

Streamlining Process Under Way To Meet Possible Defense Commitments.

By The Associated Press

BUENOS AIRES, Jan. 7.—Argentina's Navy is undergoing a complete reorganization to streamline the nation's seagoing forces and prepare them for expansion should inter-American defense commitments make it necessary.

The principal physical change scheduled for this month, consists in separating operational and administrative functions to put the naval organization on the same basis as the United States.

Long regarded as friendly to the United States, the Navy will make a postwar demonstration of its regard when it entertains the crews of two U. S. warships scheduled to make a courtesy call here this month, the first by a U. S. squadron since January 1942.

Buying Mission in U. S.
Argentina has a big naval buying mission in New York headed by Admiral Atheros Colonna. Hopeful officers would like to see new warcraft made available to supplement the overage battleships Rivadavia and Moreno, both built in the United States in 1911 and remodeled in 1925.

The Colonna mission is reported interested in having American yards build some new fighting ships so Argentina can be prepared to meet its obligations in any defense of the western hemisphere against foreign attack.

In diplomatic circles it is felt that if the Peron government cannot fill its needs in the United States, it will take its business to Great Britain or Italy.

Academy Exchange Plan

The postwar rapprochement between Buenos Aires and Washington reached at the Rio de Janeiro meeting makes it possible for Argentine cadets to study at Annapolis and the naval war college in the United States. The main contact at present between the two navies is maintained by four American instructors under contract as advisers to the Argentine navy.

Argentine naval reorganization has been planned for a long time, but gained new momentum after the Rio de Janeiro conference. Al-

BUCYRUS HEADS HARDING CAGERS; ST. MARY TAKES CAREY

Red Hot Redmen Edge Prexies 64-60 In Overtime Contest

A red hot crew of Bucyrus Redmen shaded the Harding Presidents, 64-60, in an overtime game on the Bucyrus floor last night after Bucyrus hero, Jimmy Gallant, knotted up the game with a field goal 10 seconds before it ended.

The Prexies trailed until halftime, but unloaded a 21-point barrage in the third frame to go into a three-point lead which they held until Gallant and mates tied up the game in its closing seconds. Jim Coss led the Prexies with 17 markers and Dick Riddle, Jim Rea and Dick Clark each made more than 10 points.

Gallant was high scorer with 21 points.

Prexy Percentage Good

The Prexy percentage of good field goals was even better than the Redmen's—probably the best they'll make this year," said Coach Kenny Schermer, but they didn't get a chance to shoot as often as the winners because of a tight Redman defense they couldn't crack until the second half. The Presidents made good 24 out of 56 attempts for a very high 42.8 percentage, while the Redmen netted 30 out of 74 for a 40.6 percent figure of accuracy.

The Prexies outdid the winners in foul shooting, however, making good 12 out of 25; while the Redmen made but four of 17.

Lead in Final Quarter

Going into the final quarter on top, 48-42, the Presidents maintained their edge until a Bucyrus rally began in the last two minutes.

Gallant dropped in a long shot that circled the basket three times before settling in to move within three points of Harding at 56-53 and then added another to move within one point.

Jim Rea made a foul shot to put the locals ahead, 57-55, but Gallant knotted up the game with a basket in the last 10 seconds and it went into an overtime.

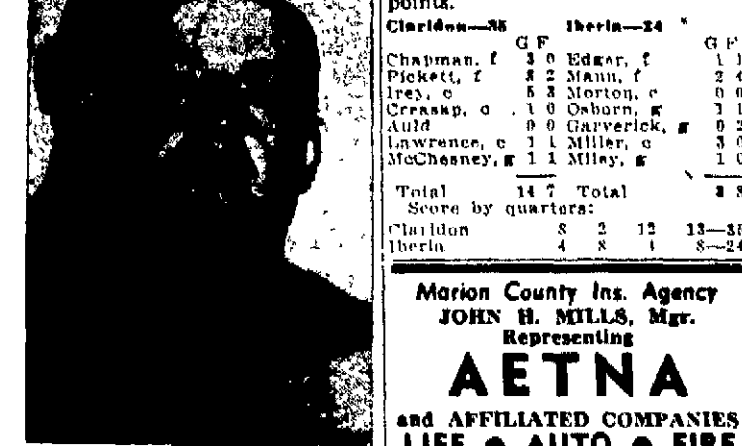

Dick Riddle opened up the overtime with a two-point shot but Gallant again tied it up and then Wait Light scored what proved to be the winning basket to put Bucyrus ahead, 61-58. Jim Rea sent in a foul shot to close out Harding's scoring, and "Dutch" Dutcher and Larry Morton drove home the win with a charity toss and a bucket.

The Harding reserves shaded the Bucyrus youngsters, 38-36, after a slow first-quarter start. Redman Dick Kibler topped the

BATTERED TROJANS PICK IRISH OVER MICHIGAN

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 7.—All the returns weren't in yet, but to Southern California's battered Trojans—who should know—Notre Dame rates the nod over Michigan as the nation's top college club.

Incomplete tabulation of a Trojan poll showed Notre Dame nearly a 3-1 choice despite the sportswriters' pull giving Michigan a 2-1 bulge.

Battle Royal For Thursday

To start off the new year Promotor Fishbaugh has signed a five man battle royal for the Marion wrestling fans at the armory Thursday night. After working on the program for over a week the five wrestlers are Dutch Schultz, the tall, tough Texan; Steve Neno, the Toledo Bulgarian who has won more matches on the Marion mat than any other grappler; Stocky Neilson, the Birmingham grappler who has grown a beard since his last appearance here; Rex Mobley, another Texan who is plenty rough and a new boy from Milwaukee, Tony Martingale. Tony comes with quite a reputation as being a very good looking lad and plenty fast and clever. The first man to lose is out for the evening, the next two to get pinned come back for the forty-five minute semi-final and the last two left in the ring return for the two hour main event. All matches two out of three falls. The ten minute prelim at 8:30 is between Herb Williams and Bob Boulton. No change in prices. Call Markert & Lewis Cigar Store for your seats.—Adv.

AIR FORCE OFFICER HEARD BY RESERVES

Maj. Edsell Clark of Lockbourne Base Is Speaker.

Major Edsell Clark, A.A.P. of Lockbourne Air base, Columbus, was a guest speaker at a meeting of the Marion Area Chapter Reserve Officers' association last night at Hotel Harding. Col. Hubert L. Taylor, president, presided for the meeting which included a short business session.

Future military needs were discussed from the viewpoint of this country's ability to prepare for an emergency. Universal military training was stressed as one of the most important post-war preparations and all reserve officers were asked to cooperate in the adoption of the universal military training program.

Major Clark discussed the part of the air force in the future defense of the United States. He stated the National Guard is to have a large part in air defense as many reserve units have been formed making active duty with the Army Air Force possible. He also said the U. S. air force ranks third with other nations, and that with a third rate air force we are not adequately protected from attack by air. In closing he pointed out that the budget for the air force is extremely low in comparison with other branches of service and will have to be raised in order to maintain an efficient personnel.

Captain John B. Weaver, C. E. Unit instructor here, answered questions on affiliated units and pointed out that the Huber Mfg. Co. had joined the ranks of the Universal Cooler and Marion Power Shovel Co. in activating an engineer maintenance company.

The program closed with a film, "Operations Crossroads," shown by M/Sgt. Richard Garver and Sgt. Robert Belt. The film deals with atomic tests on Bikini and showed the effect of atomic bombing on ships, animals and equipment, and emphasized the need to safeguard our security.

Forms for active duty are available at the Unit Instruction office at 131-133 West Center street, it was announced. Also questions on all Reserve affairs may be directed to this office Captain Weaver states.

Committee Reports

Heard by Jr. C. of C.

Reports of committee activities were given at a regular meeting of the Marion Junior Chamber of Commerce Tuesday night in the Republican club rooms.

Ray Coleman, safety committee chairman, reported that the safety calendar project had been completed with the calendars having been placed in business establishments throughout Marion county. An announcement was made by Delmar Rusch, agriculture committee chairman, of a project to be taken up in the near future.

An announcement was made by Duane Wiseman of a state Jaycee meeting to be held Sunday, Jan. 18, in Columbus. Speaker will be John Ben, president of the United States Junior C. of C. All members planning to attend are to contact Jack Lautenslager at 9872 or Kenneth Turner at 7705 before Sunday night.

Miles of track operated by U. S. railroads reached a peak of 429,823 in 1931, declining to about 390,000 in 1945.

Special Delivery Jones Hopes To Join Tribe

By The Associated Press
CLEVELAND, Jan. 7 — Edgar (Special Delivery) Jones, star left halfback of the champion Cleveland Browns of the All-America conference, said today he "hoped" to go to the Cleveland Indians' spring training camp.

Jones, a sensational high school pitcher at Scranton, Pa., a number of years ago, has hurried in the Class A sandlot league here the last two summers.

Tribe President Bill Veeck admitted an interest in Jones, although the chunky right-hander is 27, well past the age at which a prospect is signed under ordinary circumstances.

"But it hasn't yet gone beyond the conversation stage," Veeck said. "I asked Jones to drop in and see me in a few days to talk the thing over."

McCray Rumored New Pittsburgh Grid Coach

By The Associated Press
PITTSBURGH, Jan. 7—Rumors were flying today that R. N. (Rube) McCray, football coach at William and Mary, will replace Walter S. Milligan as head of the University of Pittsburgh gridiron strategy board—but all concerned denied a change was being planned.

A usually reliable source at Richmond, Va., declared last night that McCray had been "highly recommended" to Pitt officials by John B. (Jack) Sutherland, former Pitt mentor and present coach of the Pittsburgh Steelers of the National Football league.

Milligan has coached the Pitt Panthers one year after succeeding Wes Fesler, now at Ohio State. The Richmond report brought immediate denials both from Virginia and Pittsburgh.

MARION GROUPS HEAR LOUIS A. CRITTENTON

Rotary and Foremen's Clubs Hear Toledo Speaker.

Louis A. Crittenton of Toledo, a member of the speakers staff of the National Association of Foremen, gave two addresses in Marion yesterday, one to the Rotary club at noon and another to the Marion Foremen's club at night.

Selecting the topic "Foremanship" for his talk to members of the Foremen's club, Mr. Crittenton advocated education and cooperation among fellow workers. Mr. Crittenton said "we cannot call ourselves management men until we, in turn, experience the moral glory of opening the door for somebody else. About 103 members and guests were present at the meeting.

Mr. Crittenton, in his talk before Rotarians, urged more thorough and complete supervision of children and their lives, saying that this had been neglected during the war and must gain the attention of those persons in a position to help.

Speaking of industry, he said that success depends on cooperation and loyalty between employer and employee.

The foremen's meeting was at Columbian hall on West Columbia street, and the noon meeting was the Rotary weekly luncheon session at Hotel Harding.

Mr. Crittenton, served for 15 years on the board of directors of the Pacific Garden Missions and also served eight years as secretary of the board of directors of the Chicago Boys club.

At the foremen's meeting, an announcement was made that $22,000 has been subscribed by Foremen's Clubs throughout the United States toward the purchase of a new national headquarters building in Dayton. H. E. Webster, secretary, announced the speaker for the next meeting, Feb. 17, will be Clyde Powell of Chicago.

Guests at the Rotary meeting were R. E. Martin of Cleveland, H. H. Douthett and Kivanian Hugh F. Hay, both of Marion. The Harding High school reporter was Sue Gilkison.
